

The solo flutist of the Volksoper Wien enjoys an excellent reputation as a versatile soloist, sought-after chamber musician and passionate and successful teacher. Birgit won the most important Austrian competitions and was awarded prizes at numerous international competitions, including.

In 2001 at the International Music Competition „Pacem in Terris“ in Bayreuth, with the „Mozart Prize 2004“ Wiesbaden and in 2005 at the International Flute Competition „Jean-Pierre Rampal“ in Paris. As a soloist she has performed all the major flute concertos in Europe and Asia with various orchestras, including the Ensemble Orchestral de Paris, the Camerata Hamburg, the Tokyo Chamber Orchestra, the Baroque Ensemble of the Vienna Symphony Orchestra. Recent highlights include appearances as a soloist at the Seoul Arts Centre/South Korea and the Tokyo Opera City Hall /Japan.

Her enthusiasm for chamber music in various formations has led her to important festivals worldwide: Salzburg Festival, Festspiele Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, Richard Strauss Festival, Festival Latinoamericano de Música Caracas, Murten Classics, Grafenegg Festival, Liszt Festival Raiding, Attersee-Klassik Festival, Millstätter Musikwochen, Rheingau Musik Sommer and New Music Week Shanghai.

She is a founding member of the Trio Partout (flute, viola & harp), the Harmoniemusik of the Volksoper Wien, the Theophil Ensemble Wien and a member of the ensemble xxi. jahrhundert, the Salzburg Orchestra Soloists and the Mozart Ensemble of the Volksoper Wien. CD recordings with solo and chamber music as well as radio and television recordings document her musical work.

In January 2022, her new album „The Bird of Life“ was released with first recordings on the Naxos label (8.579111), for which she has received excellent reviews at home and abroad. Since 2018, she has been a board member of the Austrian Flute Society and accepts invitations to give master classes at renowned institutions and festivals around the world. She is also a welcome guest on jury panels at home and abroad.
